Sir:

RESPONSE TO OFFICE ACTION

This paper responds to the Office Action mailed September 26, 2003, which set a shortened statutory period for response of one month. In a separate Petition, Applicants have requested and paid the fee for a one-month extension of time. Thus, this response is timely filed by November 26, 2003.

REMARKS

In the Office Action, the Examiner asserts that claim 1 is generic to a plurality of patentably distinct species comprising the compounds of the working examples. Office Action, page 2. Applicants are required to elect a single species for examination. The Examiner notes that related compounds will then be grouped together for examination purposes. In response, Applicants elect the
